Adam Nussbaum

OCTOBER 13

Concert @ 7:30 PM, Fine Arts Theatre

Adam Nussbaum is considered one of the finest drummers working today. He’s played with a virtual “Who’s Who” in the jazz world. He’s been on hundreds of recordings, including the Grammy winning “Don’t Try This At Home” recorded with Michael Brecker. In addition, Nussbaum reaches out to the next generation. He is an in-demand educator doing Clinics and MasterClasses, teaching at such institutions as Berklee, NYU, State University of New York, the New School, and at numerous Conservatories around the world. His abilities have brought opportunities for him to work with the finest makers of all things drum-related. Working with Sonor drums, he helped design a line in the “HiLite” series. In conjunction with Zildjian cymbals, Nussbaum helped develop the “Renaissance” & “Pre-Aged” K. Zildjian cymbals. He also co-produced with Hudson Music, “The Art of Playing Brushes.”

Kennedy Dream Suite: Civil Rights & the Music of Oliver Nelson

OCTOBER 25

Concert @ 7:30 PM, Fine Arts Theatre

Join the Saxquest Jazz Orchestra for an evening of music by native St. Louisan and jazz legend, Oliver Nelson. The evening will feature a variety of Oliver Nelson classics, and will conclude with a special performance of “The Kennedy Dream Suite.” This is one of Nelson’s most ambitious works. Composed of eight movements, each piece incorporates an audio/visual of the 34th President’s oratorios on human rights as a prelude. With certain movements titled “The Rights of All,” “Tolerance,” “Genuine Peace,” and “The Artists’ Rightful Place,” it’s shocking just how relevant this music still is decades later.
Remember the name Camille Thurman. As a composer, multi-instrumentalist, vocalist, and unique interpreter of the jazz tradition, she is quickly becoming one of the standard bearers for the art form, making a considerable and dynamic contribution to the legacy of jazz while paying tribute to its heroes.

In a few short years, Thurman has shared stages with such jazz and R&B luminaries as George Coleman, Roy Haynes, Dianne Reeves, and Wynton Marsalis among others. The New York City native has already amassed several distinctive honors for her musicianship: nominations for Downbeat Magazine’s Critics Poll (Rising Star Tenor Saxophonist), runner up in the 2013 Sarah Vaughan International Vocal Competition, two-time winner of the ASCAP Herb Alpert Young Jazz Composers Award, a winner of the Fulbright Scholars Cultural Ambassador Grant, and The Chamber Music of America Performance Plus Grant (Sponsored by the Dorris Duke Charitable Foundation) in addition to many others. Thurman also has four full-length recordings as a leader to her credit.

Her compositions were featured and performed by her quartet in the ASCAP/The Kennedy Center “Songwriters: The Next Generation” showcase. Thurman was the first woman in 30 years to tour and perform full time, playing internationally with the Jazz at Lincoln Center Orchestra as a saxophonist/woodwind player (2018-2020). Thurman also leads her band, The Camille Thurman Quartet, which has toured and performed at numerous notable concert venues and jazz festivals around the world, including the Kennedy Center and Alice Tully Hall. She is also a collaborative featured artist with the Darrell Green Trio.

In May of 2020, Thurman created and founded the “The Haven Hang: Young Lioness Musician Q&A and Advice Hour.” The Haven Hang serves as a virtual mentorship series for young women musicians, with an initiative to mentor, share advice, and support young women pursuing careers in music and the performing arts.

“In this transcendently powerful new adaptation by Wendy Kesselman, Anne Frank emerges from history a living, lyrical, intensely gifted young girl, who confronts her rapidly changing life and the increasing horror of her time with astonishing honesty, wit, and determination. An impassioned drama about the lives of eight people hiding from the Nazis in a concealed storage attic...[it] captures the claustrophobic realities of their daily existence – their fear, their hope, their laughter, their grief. Each day of these two dark years, Anne’s voice shines through.”

The actors and crew battle against all odds to make it through to their final curtain call, with hilarious consequences!”

Four of the five winning children are insufferable brats: the fifth is a likeable young lad named Charlie Bucket, who takes the tour in the company of his equally amiable grandfather.
