III. OUTLINE OF TOPICS

A cross-section of skills is developed simultaneously in applied lessons. Applied lessons are tailored to the needs of the individual student so some content areas may be ignored in one case and stressed exclusively in another. A "Course Outline" in the usual sense of the word does not apply to private applied lessons however, the following constitute the areas necessary for the development of performance skills.

In each of the following units, with proficiency appropriate to the level I, the student will demonstrate the ability to:

- A. Technical Development
 - 1. Produce a characteristic tone throughout the instrument's range at all dynamic levels
 - 2. Bow and/or use pizzicato, as is appropriate to the specific instrument
 - 3. Play rhythmically
- B. Musical Interpretation
 - 1. Perform following the appropriate expressive markings (dynamics, tempo, etc.)
 - 2. Use vibrato effectively
 - 3. Perform the music in a stylistically appropriate manner.

- C. Musical Styles and Literature
 - 1. Perform literature of various style periods
 - 2. Discuss the musical characteristics of the music
 - 3. Discuss the life, style period and musical characteristics of the composers of pieces studied
