III. OUTLINE OF TOPICS

A cross-section of several areas are developed simultaneously in a performing ensemble. Course content is determined by the ability and needs of the individuals in the group as well as the demands of the performance situation. A "Course Outline" in the usual sense of the word does not apply to performing groups, however, the following constitute the areas necessary for the development of musical skills.

- A. Small Ensemble Participation
The student will gain performing experience with a woodwind choir or small woodwind ensemble (trio, quartet, quintet) a foundation for any future efforts for any musician.
- B. Woodwind Choir and Small Woodwind Ensemble Literature
The student will develop familiarity with the best music literature available for woodwind choir and small woodwind ensembles.
- C. Technical Development
The student will gain an awareness of technical and non-technical problems with performance of woodwind choir and small woodwind ensemble music with the intent of preparing the student for a similar teaching experience.

- D. Musical Development
The student will have the opportunity for personal musical expression and satisfaction through concentrated study, rehearsals and public performance.
- E. Public Performance
The student will synthesize the development of musical and technical skills through literature to present a public concert.
