Sophomore Recital

Kenneth Tse

Widely recognized as one of the world’s leading classical saxophonists, Kenneth Tse is certainly one of the instrument’s outstanding proponents on any saxophone aficionado’s short list. He burst on the scene in 1996 as the winner of the prestigious New York Artists International Award, which resulted in an acclaimed debut recital at Carnegie Hall, after which he was hailed as “a young virtuoso” by the New York Times.

Tse is currently the professor of saxophone at University of Iowa and Vice President of the International Saxophone Committee. He holds degrees from the University of Illinois, Champaign-Urbana, Indiana University and Hong Kong Academy for Performing Arts. He was the first saxophonist to receive the prestigious Artist Diploma from Indiana University School of Music.
