This course is designed to comply with annual firearms qualification requirements for retired Law Enforcement Officers by H.R. 218 (Law Enforcement Officer's Safety Act) as amended and the Revised Statutes of Missouri 650.030 as implemented by the Missouri Department of Public Safety. A two hour classroom presentation will be followed by timed range qualification. The qualification table requires a minimum of 50 rounds for semi-auto and/or revolver. Those desiring to qualify with both a semi-auto and a revolver will need appropriate holsters and ammunition.

Course Description:

As there will be no ammunition available at the range, it is recommended that attendees bring ample rounds for their handgun.

Please bring to class a concealed carry firearm and holster. Semi-auto pistols will need at least 3 magazines. Speed loaders are strongly suggested for revolvers. Impact resistant eyewear, hearing protection, a cap or hat with a brim that extends over the top of the eye protection as well as suitable clothing to conceal the weapon. Writing utensils.
