Applications will be accepted until all positions are filled.

California is well known as, "Small Enough to Know You, but Big Enough to Serve You." California is a small town with strong family values, great community spirit, and an award-winning school district, and churches of nearly every denomination. At the same time, California is located only 15 minutes from Jefferson City, the State's Capitol, and about 45 minutes from Columbia.

Come join the California Police Department and be a part of an exciting new beginning as we help protect and serve the City of California.
