How has video affected law enforcement? During this training we will examine the impact of video on law enforcement. We live in a world where actions are recorded 24 hours a day, 7 days a week. From video cameras in a business, in a residence, to the cameras on everyone's cell phone where does anyone go without being recorded? Add to this the cameras in many police vehicles and personal body cameras and the Deputy/Officer finds himself on video for the majority of their shift.

We will review

Course Description:

Who can record law enforcement?

When can law enforcement be videotaped?

The benefits of being recorded and how to use this to our advantage.

How to prepare for being videotaped. (Communication and control)

Can law enforcement seize a person's video?

We will review a model policy regarding guidance when being videotaped.
