Sex-Based Discrimination is unequal or disadvantageous treatment of an individual or group of individuals based on gender or sex.

Sexual Harassment is any conduct on the basis of sex that satisfies one of the following:
- An employee of the College conditioning the provision of an aid, benefit, or service of the College on an individual's participation in unwelcome sexual conduct.
- Unwelcome conduct determined by a reasonable person to be so severe, pervasive, and objectively offensive it effectively denies a person equal access to the school's education program or activity; or
- Sexual Assault, Dating Violence, Domestic Violence, or Stalking as defined in the Clery Act amended by VAWA.

Sexual Assault is any sexual act directed against another person, without the consent of the victim, including instances where the victim is incapable of giving consent. This includes rape, fondling, incest, or statutory rape.

Dating Violence is violence committed by a person who is or has been in a social relationship of a romantic or intimate nature with the victim. Dating Violence includes, but is not limited to, sexual or physical abuse or threat of such abuse.

Domestic Violence is a felony or misdemeanor crime of violence committed by a current or former spouse or intimate partner of the victim; by a person with whom the victim shares a child in common; by a person who is cohabitating with, or has cohabitated with, the victim as a spouse or intimate partner; by a person similarly situated to a spouse of the victim under the domestic or family violence laws of the jurisdiction in which the act(s) occurred; or by any other person against an adult or youth victim who is protected from that person's acts under the domestic or family violence laws of the jurisdiction in which it occurred.

Stalking is engaging in a course of conduct directed at a specific person that would cause a reasonable person to fear for their or others’ safety, or suffer substantial emotional distress. Course of conduct is two or more acts, and includes direct or indirect actions by a person or through a third party or other means follows, monitors, observes, surveils, threatens or communicates to or about a person or interferes with a person's property.

Supportive/Protective Measures or Accommodations are non-disciplinary, non-punitive measures put in place to assist any individual impacted by sexual harassment, inclusive of dating violence, domestic violence, sexual assault, or stalking, in order to restore or preserve their equal access to their educational program, educational activity, or employment. Supportive measures are provided free of cost and implemented with or without the presences of a police report or formal complaint to pursue the campus disciplinary process.

Sexual Assault, Domestic Violence, Sexual Harassment, Dating Violence, or Stalking as defined in the Clery Act amended by VAWA.

Such measures may include, but are not limited to no contact orders; no trespass notices; academic accommodations (such as course changes or other appropriate arrangements); residential accommodations for individuals living on campus; changes in employment arrangements if applicable; assistance with accessing counseling, disability services, safety escorts, etc.; and information and assistance with filing a report with law enforcement and/or seeking restraining orders or orders of protection.

Such requests should be made to the Title IX Coordinator. The Coordinator or designee will assess the need to implement any such measures and will provide these measures if they are reasonably available. The College will keep confidential, to the extent practicable, any measures provided.

Civil Ex Parte & Order of Protection

Jefferson College does not issue Orders of Protection. The JCPD is responsible for enforcing any judicially issued protective measure, such as an Ex Parte Order or Full Order of Protection.
- Jefferson County Courthouse, 300 Main Street, Hillsboro, MO 63050, 636-797-5443

Confidentiality

Jefferson College will protect the identity of persons who report having been victims of dating violence, domestic violence, sexual assault or stalking, by only sharing information with those who are “need to know”, even if the victim does not specifically request confidentiality.

The Clery Act requires the College to collect and report specific statistical information, including the nature, location, and date/time of the crime related to incidents of sexual assault, domestic violence, dating violence, and stalking that take place on College-owned or controlled properties or at College-sponsored programs or events. The victim’s personally identifying information will not be included in any publicly available recordkeeping, including Clery Act reporting and disclosures such as the Annual Security Report and the daily crime log.

Though each survivor's experience is unique, there are a wide range of emotions that may be felt over the days, weeks, months, and even years following a traumatic experience. These reactions may change over time, and it may be helpful to address the experience with the assistance of others. A survivor's immediate and long-term safety is what is most important. These resources and options may be helpful to a survivor when deciding what next steps are a good fit for them.

Jefferson College is committed to fostering an inclusive environment where all individuals are respected and empowered to achieve their goals. In pursuit of the mission, vision, and values of the College, as well as to be in compliance with all applicable local, state, and federal laws, the Jefferson College Title IX Sexual Harassment Procedure and Grievance Process prohibits any form of discrimination on the basis of sex, inclusive of Sexual Harassment.

Importance of Preserving Evidence

It is important to preserve evidence that may be useful in proving that a crime occurred. This will be helpful in obtaining an Order of Protection or in proceeding with a criminal investigation or a campus disciplinary process should you choose to pursue any of these options. Evidence may be collected from the scene; from the survivor's body, clothes, and other personal belongings; from text messages, instant messages, and social networking pages; and from any other virtual or written communication including pictures, logs, or other copies of documents. A local hospital can help you complete a sexual assault forensic exam and a local police department can help you document evidence via filing a police report.

How & To Whom to Report Sexual & Interpersonal Violence

Survivors are encouraged to report what happened to them so they can get the support they need and so law enforcement and the College can respond appropriately. Survivors have the options to 1.) Notify proper law enforcement authorities, including on campus and local police, 2.) be assisted by campus authorities in notifying law enforcement authorities, and 3.) declining to notify such authorities.

Reporting to Law Enforcement Authorities: If the crime occurred on campus, the Jefferson College Police Department (JCPD) can assist you filing a police report. Emergency 9-1-1, 636-481-3500, JCH-Viking Woods 214, JCA-Room 330. If the crime occurred off-campus, the JCPD recommends that you contact the police department where you live or where the assault occurred.

Reporting to Jefferson College Authorities: Making a report ensures the College is put on notice of the incident and ensures the survivor is provided a written explanation of their rights and options whether the incident occurred on or off campus. Reports may be made in person, verbally, by phone, in writing through mail or electronic mail or any other manner that delivers the information to the appropriate Title IX Coordinator at any time. Employees: Tasha Welsh, Director of Human Resources, 636-481-3157, ADM, twelsh@jeffco.edu

Title IX of the Education Amendments of 1972 states “No person in the United States shall, on the basis of sex, be excluded from participation in, be denied benefit of, or be subjected to discrimination under any education program or activity receiving federal financial assistance.”

Declining to Notify Authorities/Declining to Make a Report: It is understandable to not be sure what you want to do. It’s also okay to want to tell someone because you need someone to talk to or because you want help finding services, whether the incident occurred on or off campus.
