

Discover Your Pathway to Career Success in

TEACHING

WHAT IS AN APPRENTICESHIP?

An apprenticeship is paid, long-term employment in your chosen career, linked to your education. It offers a realistic career preview, on-the-job training, a mentor, and the chance to earn wage increases as you develop skills.

WHAT ARE THE BENEFITS OF THE TEACHER AIDE APPRENTICESHIP?

An apprenticeship boosts your job prospects by providing hands-on experience while earning your degree. A completed teacher aide apprenticeship can also earn you credits at Central Methodist University, speeding up your bachelor's degree and reducing school debt. This allows you to earn money and gain classroom experience, which can lead to full-time teaching opportunities. Additionally, teacher aide apprenticeships through Jefferson College count toward some field experience requirements in EDU courses, a unique benefit not available to other students.
