million in FY 2025. This increase is driven by several factors: Total unrestricted revenues and budgeted transfers are projected at $40.25 million, up from $39.20

- A 2.9% increase in tiered tuition to address inflationary pressures, along with the transition of CIS and EMT/Paramedic programs from Tier 1 to Tier 2 to better reflect program delivery costs.
- to $8.9 million. A 1.5% increase in core state funding, resulting in an additional $130,000 and bringing the total
- Senior Tax Relief legislation. Local taxes are conservatively budgeted at $10.3 million, mindful of the impact from SB190
- Due to the self-insurance fund's strong financial standing, $300,000 is budgeted to be transferred to the operating fund. This action reduces the remaining general reserve allocation to $300,000, down from the original $1.1 million that seeded the fund in its early establishment.
- Enrollment projections remain flat, reflecting prudent forecasting within a competitive higher education environment.
