against } Court of Jefferson Henry Gieselmann, defdt. } County, Missouri
May Term 1868,

Plaintiff states, that defendant, by his promissory note, herewith filed, dated February 1st 1867, promised, one year after the date thereof to pay to the order of plaintiff the sum of Eight hundred dollars, for value received, with interest thereon from the date of said note at the rate of eight per cent per annum, that said note was negotiable and payable, without defalcation or discount; that before the maturity of said note the same was endorsed by plaintiff to Hermann Diehl and by Hermann Diehl to Gayler D. Lavenororth, that on the 4th day of February 1868, being the third day after maturity of said note the same was presented for payment to said defendant, that defendant then declined and refused to pay the same; that thereupon said note was protested for non-payment and notice thereof given to plaintiff as the first endorser, that plaintiff thereupon paid the said note, principal and interest, to said Gayler D. Lavenororth.

Plaintiff states, that he is now the lawful owner and holder of said note, that defendant is therefore indebted to plaintiff in the sum of Eight hundred dollars, principal of said note, ~~for~~ and interest thereon from the date of said note at the rate of Eight percent and also for thirty two dollars for damages for non-payment of the same and protest therefor, for which principal, interest and damages and as well as costs of suit plaintiff asks Judgment against defendant.
