Jackson Boughton, - Plaintiff } In the Circuit
 Against } Court of Jefferson
 C. W. Kerckhoff, and } County Missouri
 Peter Heinmeier, - Defendants } May Term 1869.

Now at this day come the Defendants, and for Answer to the petition of the Plaintiff, admit that they gave their Promissory Note to Plaintiff on the 26th day of December 1866, for five hundred dollars, payable eleven months after date, - And state that the Credit given thereon for one hundred & fifty dollars, paid on the 8th of March 1868, is correct, - and also, the Credit of 150 dollars, paid on the 25th of March 1869, - But, they say the Credit given on said Note, as stated in the petition, for thirty dollars, paid on the 8th of July 1868, is not as much as Defendants paid on that day. Defendants aver that, on the 8th day of July 1868, the said C. W. Kerckhoff, paid on said Promissory Note the sum of Ninety dollars, - and that the Credit on the same of 30 dollars, should be Ninety dollars, - Defendants therefore allege that they paid sixty dollars more on said Note than Plaintiff has given Credit for in said petition, And they therefore claim a Credit for payment on said Note of sixty dollars, in addition to the amounts that Plaintiff has given Credit for in his petition,
