Plaintiff further states that the above sum of seventeen hundred and ninety one dollars is still due and payable from defendants to plaintiff;

and that she has often demand-ed the same.

Wherefore plaintiff asks judg-ment for the sum of Seventeen hundred and ninety one dollars and interest from the first day of Nov. ~~1868~~ 1868.

Plaintiff for further cause of action states that during the performance of the contract aforesaid the defendants became indebted to plaintiff in the sum of one hundred and fifty dollars for the use of bedding furnished to defendants labor-ers at defendants request; that during the time plaintiff boarded defendants laborers as aforesaid she furnished for the use of said laborers all the bedding required for their sleeping apartments, that said bedding was used by said la-borers and that the use of said bedding was reasonably worth the sum of one hundred and fifty dollars which sum plain-tiff has often requested but has never been paid by defendants to plaintiff and is still due.

Wherefore plaintiff prays judg-ment for the sum of one hundred and fifty dollars and interest from November first, eighteen hundred and sixty eight.

Plaintiff further states that at the time and during the using of the bedding aforesaid by said laborers there was lost and destroyed by defendants servants a certain lot of bedding, to-wit; of the aggregate value of twenty dollars; that said bedding was lost and destroyed entirely by the defendants servants and that it is justly of the value of twenty dollars; that plaintiff has demanded the sum of twenty dollars from defendants and that defendants have refused to pay the same and that the said twenty dollars is still due and payable.

Wherefore plaintiff prays judgement for the sum of twenty dollars and interest from the first day of November, one thousand eight hundred and sixty eight.

J. G. Rapp & John Ball Defendants

Now at this day Come said Defendants and for answer to the petition of the Plaintiff admit that they engaged Plaintiff to board hands for them in 1868 near Dent Station on the I. M. R. R. at the price and rates as set out in said petition and that she did board the persons named in said petition for the time therein specified - but they most positively deny that they owe her therefor the sum of seven hundred and and ninety one dollar, or any portion thereof. They own that during the ^{time} she was boarding hands for them they furnished to her at her request all the provisions she used in her boarding house, such as beef, potatoes, fish, flour, hominy, cream torter, soda, eggs, Malasses, bacon, butter, salt, turnips, Onions, Tea, Coffee, Sugar, rice, mustard, hams, shoulder, oysters, mutton vinegar &c. and also furnished Cork for her hands all which in payment for the board of their hands by Plaintiff amounting in the aggregate to Two thousand, one hundred and seventy dollars and nineteen Cents, all of which will fully appear by a bill of items herewith filed and prayed to be taken as a part of this ^{answer} ~~petition~~. Defendants therefore say that Plaintiff is indebted to them in the sum of three hundred and seventy nine dollars and nineteen Cents after deducting the amount she claims for the board of hands. Wherefore they demand Judgment for three hundred and seventy nine ⁴⁹ ~~79~~ dollars with interest on the same from Dec. 1868.

Defendants in answer to the second Count in said petition deny that they during the performance of said Contract to board said hands became indebted to Plaintiff in the sum of one hundred and fifty dollars or any other sum for the use of bedding furnished to Defendant laborers at Defendants request. They admit that Plaintiff furnished a portion of the bedding for her boarders but that she was bound to do by her Contract to furnish bed and board for Defendants laborers at four dollars and fifty Cents per week for each hand. Defendants therefore say that Plaintiff is not entitled to recover against them one hundred and fifty dollars for the use of bedding for their laborers.

Defendants in answer to the third count of said petition state that they have no knowledge or information sufficient to form a belief as to whether at the time and during the using of the bedding aforesaid by said laborers there was lost or destroyed by defendants servants a certain lot of bedding to wit
