I executed this writ in Jefferson County Mo on the 22nd Day of December 1868. vs Samuel W Crawford by Leaving a true copy of this writ and Petition at his usual place of abode with a white Person of his family over the age of fifteen years, and I further executed this writ in Jefferson County Mo on the same day by taking from one Hundred cords of Wood from the Possession of Samuel W Crawford and Delivering the same to Catharine West and by taking from the Possession of Samuel W Crawford thirty cords of Stave Timber and Delivering the same into the Possession of Catharine West

John Williams
Sheriff

In Circuit Court Jefferson County Catherine West Plaintiff against

Samuel W. Crawford Defendant

The defendant in answer to the petition of the above named plaintiff denies that she is the legal owner of two hundred and fifty cords of wood of the value of three hundred and fifty dollars and five car loads of stave timber of the value of three hundred and fifty dollars. and the defendant denies that the plaintiff is entitled to the possession of the same and the defendant further denies that he wrongfully detains the same from the plaintiff, or that she the said plaintiff is entitled to one hundred dollars damage from him for the detention of said property.

The defendant further answering the petition of said plaintiff says that he entered into an agreement with said plaintiff to cut off from her land one thousand cords of wood and one hundred cords of stave timber that he the said defendant was to pay for the chopping and hauling of said wood and stave timber, sell and dispose of the same, and was to divide one half of the profits over and above the expenses with said plaintiff. that in pursuance of said agreement he did commence said to cut the wood and stave timber as aforesaid and did deliver to the plaintiff his share of the profits of the wood sold and delivered in pursuance of said agreement, and that the wood and stave timber claimed by the plaintiff was ~~the~~ a portion of the wood and stave timber cut in pursuance of the agreement as aforesaid with the said plaintiff

Wherefore the defendant demands the delivery of said wood and stave timber wrongfully taken from him by the said plaintiff as aforesaid and damages for the detention thereof in the sum of seven hundred dollars

For replication to the new matter set up by Defendant in his answer the Plaintiff comes and denies that she and Defendant entered into an agreement for Defendant to cut from Plaintiff's land one thousand cords of wood and one hundred cords of stone timber or any other amount of cord wood or stone timber. She denies that Defendant was to chop said wood & timber and pay for chopping and hauling the same, sell and dispose of the same or was to divide the net profits between Plaintiff and defendant. She denies that defendant chopped any wood or timber on her land under any such agreement as he alleges in his said answer, ~~otherwise~~ She denies that the timber and wood claimed by her in this suit were chopped by Defendant under said alleged contract or under any contract whatever with Plaintiff.

Wherefore she demands judgment for said wood and timber as prayed by her in her original petition.
