Wm Miller who is acting as agent for J. R. Miller in this action upon his oath states that ~~due diligence has been used to get~~ defendant cannot safely proceed to trial in the above cause on account of the absence of Smith who is a material witness for defendant. That he has used due diligence to obtain the attendance of said witness by having a subpoena issued for said witness and upon leaving the Sheriff could not find him this official proceeded to St Louis with a subpoena but could not find said Smith and was informed that he had left the City & gone down the Mississippi temporarily - that it was since the Commencement of this Court that he went after said witness - that said witness is not absent by the consent or connivance of this official or defendant and that he believes the attendance of such witness or his deposition can be procured by next Court if an adjournment is allowed. This official further states that there is no other witnesses in attendance at Court or within the reach of this Court by whom the same facts ^{be proven} can
