Notice

In the County Court of Jefferson County Mo. - July Term 1869,

To the Honorable the County Court of Jefferson County Missouri;

The undersigned, Gottlieb Weabner, would respectfully state that about the 27th day of October 1868, he married Anna Steinmeier, widow of Casper Steinmeier, deceased, and that thereby her children by said Deceased to wit, Peter, Eitar, and August Steinmeier, children thereof of said Casper Steinmeier, dec'd, - came into his possession, care & protection, - And that said Children being in a destitute condition, and being entitled to certain money & personal property belonging to said Casper Steinmeier's Estate, - were boarded, clothed, and taken care of by the undersigned, under the expectation of being remunerated therefor out of the Estate of said Casper Steinmeier, for about ^{seven} ~~six~~ months; and until their mother died - when Peter Steinmeier Sr. procured himself to be ap= pointed Guardian of said Children & Adminis= trator of the Estate of said Casper Steinmeier, dec'd, -

Your Petitioner states that there are no creditors of the Estate of said Casper Steinmeier deceased, - and that the personal property of the ^{same} ~~estate~~, consisting of debts due the same (about three hundred dollars of which is due from the Administrator thereof,) is about Eleven hundred dollars, - and that therefore an appropriation for the support of such minor chil= dren will not be prejudicial to the creditors of said Estate, He therefore asks the Court to make an order, appropriating the sum of one hun= dred and forty six dollars, for the support and main= tenance, boarding & clothing, of said minor children even months from October 25th 1868 to May the 1st 1869 during which time the undersigned loaned, clothed, transported and sheltered - and to order that the standing order of said estate, pay over said sum of money as aforementioned to that petitioners, as a remuneration for said services and expenses so incurred
