me, the undersigned Clerk of the Circuit Court of Jefferson county, came E. F. HONEY, who being by me duly sworn, says that the annexed advertisement was published in the JEFFERSON DEMOCRAT, a newspaper printed and published in the town of Hillsboro, in said county, of which he ^{was} printer, for four times, the first insertion being on the 13th day of July 18 69 and the last on the 21st day of August 18 69, as follows, to-wit:

Order of Publication.

[Civil Action by Attachment.]
IN the Jefferson Circuit Court, in Vacation, January 10th, 1869.
Elias F. Honey and L. H. Alford, Plaintiffs, against
Jacob Laux, Defendant.

Now at this day comes the plaintiff, aforesaid, and files in the office of the undersigned Clerk of the Circuit, within and for the county of Jefferson, their petition and affidavit, stating among other things that the above named defendant, Jacob Laux, is a non-resident of the State of Missouri. Whereupon it is ordered by the undersigned Clerk as aforesaid, that publication be made notifying him that an action has been commenced against him by petition and attachment, in the Circuit Court of Jefferson county, in the State of Missouri, founded on an account for the sum of twenty dollars; that his property is attached, and unless he be and appear at the next term of said Court, to be holden at the Court House, in Hillsboro, within and for the County of Jefferson, on the fifteenth day of November, 1869, and on or before the third day of said term, thereof, the same will be taken as confessed and judgment rendered against him, and his property sold to satisfy the same. It is further ordered that a copy hereof be published in the Jefferson Democrat, a newspaper, published in said county of Jefferson, for four weeks successively, the last insertion to be at least four weeks before the commencement of the next term of our said Court.

A true copy from Record, book No. 5, page 735.

Witness my hand and the seal of said Court, hereto annexed, this 10th day of July, A. D. 1869.
