William Watkins, - Plaintiff } In the Circuit Against } Court of Jef-J. A. Byrns, - Defendant } ferson County Missouri, }
November Term 1869,

The Defendant for Answer to Plaintiff's petition, admits that he gave his Promissory Note to Plaintiff, on the 8th day of September 1866, for the sum of two hundred and sixty eight dollars and fifty Cents, payable one day after date. But, Defendant states that some time in October 1868, the Plaintiff requested Defendant to let J. A. Griffin have certain goods and chattels, on her account, and agreed that she would credit the same on said Note, - and that, at her instance & request Defendant did deliver to said J. A. Griffin goods and chattels to the amount of ~~One~~ ^{hundred thirty} four dollars, and sixty Cents, and charged the same to Plaintiff. The particulars of which Account are herewith filed, and the amount charged against Plaintiff as so much paid on said Note, - Defendant says he also, at Plaintiff's request delivered to said J. A. Griffin one hundred dollars, which Plaintiff agreed at the time to credit as a payment on said Note, - and also, at another time, paid Plaintiff twenty dollars on said Note, by handing the same to said

J. A. Griffin, making the total amount paid on said Note of Two hundred and ^{sixty} four dollars, and ¹ sixty Cents. - leaving balance due Plaintiff of ~~and three dollars & 50 cents, on the 27th day~~ of four dollars & 50 cents.
And Defendant admits that he, on the 27th day of April 1868, gave Plaintiff another Promissory Note for 413 dollars & 22 cents. But, Defendant says that he, on the 11th day of March 1869, paid Plaintiff on this Note, the sum of two hundred and thirteen dollars, and eighty cents, by transferring & assigning to Plaintiff a Promissory Note, Defendant held on Justen Edwards for that amount, including the interest thereon, And which sum so paid by the transfer of said Note, Plaintiff agreed to credit on the Note she held against Defendant, And Defendant therefore denies that he owes Plaintiff any thing on said Promissory Note, except the balance of the same, & some interest, after deducting the sum of 213 dollars & 80 cents, - leaving a balance due Plaintiff, ^{on this note} of 199 dollars & 40 cents,

And Defendant denies that, after deducting the payments made on both of said promissory Notes as aforesaid, he owes Plaintiff on the aggregate amount of said Notes any sum exceeding the sum of two hundred, ~~& 50 cents~~ ^{and} three ^{dollars} and ~~thirty~~ ¹²⁰ Cents, with legal interest on same.

Mellie Ann Watkins, Plaintiff } In the v } Superior
J. T. Byrns, Defendant } Circuit Court.

March 1869.

Now at this day comes said Plaintiff and ~~for~~ replication to the Counter claim set up in Defendants answer, denies that she in October 1868 or at any other time requested Defendant to let J. A. Griffin have certain goods and chattels on her account or that she agreed that she would credit the same on the said notes issued on by Plaintiff. She denies that Defendant at the time aforesaid or at any other did, at the instance and request of Plaintiff, deliver to said Griffin goods and chattels to the amount of one hundred and ~~sixty four~~ ^{forty} ~~two~~ ^{two} dollars or any other sum or that Defendant charged same to Plaintiff.

Plaintiff denies that Defendant at her instance and request delivered to said J. A. Griffin one hundred dollars or any other sum, or that she agreed to at the time to credit as a payment on said note said amount or any other sum.

She denies that Defendant paid her at ~~at~~ another time the sum of twenty dollars on said notes by handing the same to said Griffin.

She denies that Defendant has paid on said note in all the sum of two hundred and ~~six~~^{four} dollars & ~~six~~ cents or any other sum.

She admits that on the last note sued on Defendant paid her two hundred and fourteen dollars in Oct 1888, which she ^{as stated in said answer} voluntarily admits as a proper offset. but the balance of said notes with the interest thereon are yet due the Plaintiff for which she asks judgment.
