John B. Craft, petff.,
vs.
Thornton Jarvis, and
C. W. Kirkhoff, defds.

In the Circuit Court
of Jefferson County, Missouri.
March Term 1870.

Now on this day comes C. W. Kirkhoff, one of defendants, by his Attorney, and in answer to the petition of plaintiff states, that since the filing of said petition to wit: on the 28th day of February 1870., he said Casper W. Kirkhoff filed in the district court of the United States for the eastern district of Missouri, his own voluntary petition for adjudication in bankruptcy and that thereupon, to wit: on the first day of March 1870. he was upon his said petition duly adjudged by said court a Bankrupt.

This defendant therefore makes application that the above entitled case against him be stayed to await the determination of said court in bankruptcy on the question of this defendant's discharge.

John B. Craft, petff.	} In the Jefferson Circuit Court, Mo. Septber. Term 1871.
vs.
C. W. Kirkhoff and Thurston Jarvis, defts.

Now comes C. W. Kirkhoff, one of defendants by his attorney, and by leave of court files the following answer.

He states, that he has been duly adjudged a bankrupt, under the act of congress, establishing a uniform system of bankruptcy through out the United States, that he has conformed to all the requirements of law in that behalf, and that by order of the district court of the United States, for the Eastern district of Missouri, he is by said court forever discharged from all debts and claims, which by said act are made provable against his estate, and which existed on the 28th day of February AD. 1870, on which day the petition for adjudication was filed by him, excepting such debts, if any, are by said act excepted from the operation of a discharge in bankruptcy,

This defendant further states, that, the debt stated in plaintiffs petition, having accrued and existed on and before the said 28th day of February AD. 1870, and not being excepted from said dis-

change, he, the defendant is discharged from the payment of said debt. The promissory note, in the petition of plaintiff fully described and filed therewith and that ^{therefore} he is not indebted to plaintiff, as he states in his petition and accounts ^{for said promissory note} ~~wherefore~~ this defendant asks to be discharged.
