 plaintiffs } Court of Jefferson vs } County, Missouri, John O'Fallon, } May Term 1872 - defendant. }

Now comes defendant, and by leave of court files this his amended answer; and for the same he says -

He denies that he owes the plaintiff or either of them two hundred and thirty dollars and twenty cents or any part thereof or any sum whatever for goods sold and delivered by plaintiff to the defendant or on any other account.
 Defendant denies that he owes the plaintiff or did when this suit was commenced owe them any sum on account of or for any article specified in the account filed by plaintiffs with their petition in this case, and denies that plaintiffs are entitled to judgment for or on account of any ^{such} ~~set~~ item or items or for any such item or items or for any sum whatever against the defendant or for any interest thereon -

As a counter claim existing in favor of defendants, ^{arising out of contract} and against the plaintiffs, at the time of the institution of this action, the defendant avers that ~~plaintiffs~~ ~~let~~ he on or about the 15th day of September 1871, delivered to the plaintiffs a threshing machine of the value of eight hundred dollars, for the purpose of having the same repaired: that since that day he has frequently requested the plaintiffs to return the same, or pay him the value thereof - but which they have refused and still refuse to do - and that they still detain the same and have converted it to their own use - He therefore prays judgment for the value of said machine in the said sum of eight hundred dollars - with interest thereon from the time of its ~~conversion~~^{receipt & delivery} as aforesaid by plaintiffs.
