If the jury believe from the evidence in the case that the defendant John Hays, alias John Brown, at Jefferson County Missouri, within three years prior to this day, broke into and entered the dwelling house of ~~Mr.~~ M. Green by forcibly bursting and breaking an outer window of the same or by breaking the fastening of such window, with intent to commit a larceny, and that he did this feloniously and burglariously, they will find him guilty and assess his punishment at imprisonment in the penitentiary at not less than ten (10) years: And if they further find that the defendant ~~is~~ is guilty as above, and that after so breaking into said house, he took & carried away & converted to his own use the goods specified in the indictment, and that they belonged to M. M. Green & were of the value of ~~ten~~ ten dollars or more, they will also find him guilty of grand larceny, and so finding they will in addition to any punishment they may assess for burglary, also assess his

Punishment at imprisonment in the penitentiary for a term not less than two nor more than 5 years ~~in addition to.~~ 12 The jury are instructed that ~~the~~ ~~recent~~ possession of ~~stolen~~ property ^{recently stolen} is presumptive Evidence of guilt and if the jury believe from the Evidence that the defendant had possession of the property mentioned in the indictment recently after the Taking of the same, they are instructed that unless such possession is satisfactorily accounted for ~~they will find the Defendant guilty~~ or explained, by the Evidence or attending Circumstances, or otherwise it is to be taken as conclusive and they will find the Defendant guilty.

We the Jury find the Defendant John Hays aka as John Brown Guilty in the manner as Charged in the first Count of the Indictment and assess his punishment at ~~ten~~^{ten} years Imprisonment in the State Penitentiary
