I expect that you think it high time that you ought to hear from me in regard to my account I was in the city three weeks ago and expected to have got the money to have settled with you but the party who I was to receive it from failed to pay me any, after giving me his promise that I should Love it that day.

I know it is not the way to do business to overwork and not pay for it at the promised time, but it has been impossible for me to get the money either what is due me or to borrow on my property as there is no money here in the country to lend. I shall have a considerable sum on or about the 1st of April, when I can pay you without fail in the mean time consider that I pay you 10 p c interest on the account untill paid Hoping you will favor me. I Remain

Very Respect^{ly}
