Lucinda C. Gasche } Peter Jenni being over a day - On Sunday Sept 1st 72 between 5 or 6 o'clock I was waked up by his (Gasche's) son at my house. He told me to get up that some one had about killed Joh. He said some fellows slipped in the house & hit him in the head I drove to the house with ^{adams} Mr. Huggs We went into the room & found Joe lying on his bed with skull broken. Dr. Pitkin was there. I said I thought he was done with the job of an ax. The wound was made square across the brow, nearly as long as my finger upper side broken squarely in lower side slanted down nearly to nose, it was a little wider than my finger - brain exposed & men-brain broken - brain oozing out. Thought it was done with an ax because a slanting blow made with an ax would have made such a wound An old ax was fitted in the wound. It seemed that the irregularities in the edge of the ax fitted the wound. I saw an ax lying in yard about 6 steps from kitchen door with handle towards kitchen Saw no blood on ax - Dr. Pitkin examined for marks. I don't think the wound was made an hour before I got there. Family consisted of Mr. Gasche, wife & 8 or 9 children. no one staying there at that time & knew of

Do not know of his having any personal Enemies - Disposition peaceable & gentle - Up to a few years ago he & his wife lived peacefully since they have parted twice - quarrels a great deal - When I got to him he shook hands, I asked him who hurt him. could get no response directly to the question. When I came she was standing in kitchen with arms folded, Do not recollect seeing her in the room on first. I was there from morning till 10 o'clock & went back at 4 or 5 in evening & staid all night. I saw her in the room Monday evening. She was called in she came in by the bed & looked at him a few minutes & said & went out. She was in the room Monday night. Did not cry - During the whole time she appeared cool & calm

When I got there they eyes were beginning to get dark blood running out of left eye - in about an hour after I got there the right eye was closed up & the upper part of wound considerably swollen Enelly age 15, Laura 12 yrs & Matilda Gache 7 yrs all slept in aas' s. room - Boys slept up stairs -

Dr. Chas Peckin sworn says - On Sunday morning Sept. 1st at about 6 o'clock I was called there. I entered the room found Gasehr lying in bed, entire surface of left frontal bone marked in, hairs running out on both sides. Right eye was closed bluish color - left eye open. When I came up he shook hands, said he knew me - said he knew who did him. Asked ~~what~~ it was. He muttered something.. was delirious - He said the Hensons, that they lived over on the bluff or bank, 3 of them. He was delirious. I turned to his wife (deth) who stood in kitchen door, & asked her how it happened. She said it was just getting light when sound of horns woke her. I rose up in bed, & saw a man dart out of door into kitchen and out of k. door. I went to kitchen door & saw him go around the corner. I came back to Henry. he was groaning. I then woke up the children & sent them after you. She said she could not tell who the man was - too dark to see in the house. When he saw out door he seemed to have something in his hand, said it was done at Sun up & I could see him The boy had run his horse to my house 1/2 miles She went out & got a shute 14 in. long of willow. Laid it to me & said it was too light to do such work as that. I asked if there was no axes then she picked up an ax lying by shaving horse & said there an ax I examined the ax at wood pile - dew on handle and in fact on ground - Also found an ax & handle on ash batten. They had not been disturbed. I then came back & examined the first ax, there was no dew, moisture or dust on it. Went back in kitchen found ~~Dr~~ there, dressed the wound again. She asked me if I thought ~~she~~ would live I said yes. She went & made fire & set breakfast. She seemed to be unconcerned, except what seemed to be an expression of nervousness. There was a heavy dew that morning. He lived 38 hrs 35 min - Died Monday night. I measured the ax, and the wound & they fitted. The right end of the wound was square. The wound could have been made by the ax she handed me. I first saw the wound about 6 o'clock the sun was up some distance. I don't think the wound could have been made over an hour when I saw it. - The wound might have been made by the ax without getting any blood on it -

They have two dogs - apt to make noise when any one comes. - The surface on the head of the ax next the handle was battered & edge raised & broken. Could make the wound as it was Dr had an blue woollen skirt & sack.

I made examination for tracks along the way Dr says the man ran - found none - About an hour after ~~wound~~ several of us made search for tracks around the house

(119)

5 wherever tracks could be made & found none except our own & a homestead track of a boy which we traced to the stable - Dft during breakfast appeared snappish - She soon went into the room where Henry was but twice. Dft is a very powerful woman strong short stout & heavy set - name ^{Lucinda} Caroline ~~Eliza~~ Gasche - His name Henry Gasche -

Omer Jahn being sworn says - My sisters Emily & Laura came up stairs between day light & sun up crying & told me somebody had struck & hurt & they believed he was dying &c I told my little brother to run & get the nurse, I went down & saw my father his skull was broken. In a half minute I went out & the nurse was there. I got on & went for doctor - ~~near~~ the nurse - was between 5 & 10 minutes coming to doctor It was not over a half hour when the doctor & I got back to the house from the time I started. I think it was before sun up when I started from home. I asked my mother if the man who did it. She said she heard a lick, & saw a man run over the kitchen door & around the corner of the kitchen. When I went to the gate to get on the horse mother & two of the children followed me, I said something to her, think I said to her, "I believe you done it". Do not remember that she made any reply. The reason I made the remark was some time before (again) she had said she would dance on his grave Dft & father had had disputes before going to bed that night. They quarrelled a good deal - Mother generally commenced them

She seemed very angry - He did not seem to have the part before I went to bed - I noticed an old ax setting leaning against the Shaving Horse the evening before & saw it there again when I & Dr came back. ^{Don't know what it was for} it was on the further side of the horse the Shaving Horse - I examined & found no strange marks. My father always got up & called me about sunup. My mother I think is easily awakened - Have two dogs - They always bark when any one not of the family comes. Dogs usually sleep at straw place near barn - They would be apt to see or hear any one coming on the place - Don't know when the dogs were that night. They generally come to the house about sunup. My father was a peaceable man - Had no enemies. When I first came down stairs my mother was draped - Had on a calico dress Don't know about the sack - She seemed cool & careless - Do not remember she made any remark to me when I first came down - The Shift Mose & Mrs Williams created her. My little brother who went after the horse was Henry - Don't know whether he saw any body - Don't think it possible for a man to come there & do that deed without disturbing the dogs or some of the family.
 There was a heavy dew that night - The doors were all open when I went to bed, and so when I came down in morning, it was one habit to sleep with them open About a year or two ago she seemed to be a little out of her mind but ~~of the~~ since she has seemed in her right mind.

My father treated all his children alike & kindly Mother made a difference between the children at times tried to persuade me against my father.

Early in the last time Ma came & wakened me up about sunrise. Told me to get up Pa was hurt Said she saw a man going out the kitchen door I did not believe it & told Matilda my sister to get up & look - she did so & ~~came back~~ said Pa's face was covered with blood. I got up without dressing & looked at him. The fellow was covered with blood - not much on the head - It looked as if it had been done but a few minutes.

My mother was emptying a tub of water. I went up stairs & told Hiram to get her doctor I went back in room. Ma stayed in hall - Hiram came with horse & Ma & I followed him to gate Hiram told her he believed she had done it. She said not to say such things. She & I came back to house I went to father she went to kitchen & made fire.
When she wakened me she was dressed with skirt & sack & when she wakened me she looked white in the face, more so than usual - it attracted my attention She did not go into the room till the Dr came. After Hiram had gone I noticed an ax leaning against the shedding horse in the yard - it was on the side towards the house. I am sure of it. If a man should walk heavily in the house it would have wakened me, I hardly - do not think it would. I saw the old dog in the yard when I got up.

She told the D that she heard a lick, it waked her she raised up saw a man going out the Kitchen door, she went & looked & saw him turn corner went back asked if he was hurt, he said nothing went & looked again saw nothing, that she then went & called me - I did not look for the man when I got up. It was about a minute from the time I was waked till the time I went in & was at Pa - I thought she did it because she was always quarrelling & had about 3 yrs before threatened to poison him - also at same time heard her say she would stamp on his trunk, they they were quarrelling when I went to bed about 9 o'clock. When I went to bed they were getting more angry & excited all the time. Quarrelling about the little children. #1

The tub had no handles, it was a half barrel. I left it full of water the night before - Suds dirty - when I went to call Hammer Mother took the tub out - Don't think she could have carried it full. It was not in the way D. She first told D. P. it was so dark she could not see the man & afterwards told him it was about-dawn -

We generally get up later than the time this occurred. Ma generally got up first & made fires, then Pa would get up & wake us children. Pa generally treated the children better than his own -
