Buechting, Theodore

vs.
Williams, George

Replevin

One mare; $50 damages

Theodore Ruechting, Plaintiff, against George Williams, Defendant.

In the Circuit Court of Jefferson County, Missouri.
January Term 1873.

Plaintiff states, that he is the owner of, and entitled to the possession of the following described, specific personal property to wit: one bay mare, about 14½ hands high, about three and a half years old, ~~with~~ the right hind foot of which is white, of the value of One hundred and thirty dollars; and that the defendant wrongfully detains said mare from the plaintiff; and that the damages, caused to plaintiff by the detention of said mare by defendant is fifty dollars.

Plaintiff therefore asks judgment for the recovery of said mare and fifty dollars damages for the detention of the same.

Theodore Buechting, plaintiff, vs. George Williams, defd. In the Circuit Court of Jefferson County, Missouri, January Term 1872.

Theodore Buechting, as principal, and as securities, acknowledge themselves to be indebted to George Williams, in the sum of two hundred and sixty dollars, for the payment of which they bind themselves, their executors and administrators.

Upon condition however as follows to wit:

Whereas the said plaintiff has brought this day against the said defendant an action for the recovery of a certain hay mow, sufficiently described in the affidavit filed with the petition, the value of which is one hundred and thirty dollars; now if he, the plaintiff shall prosecute his said action with effect and without delay, and return the said property to defendant, if return thereof be adjudged, and in default of such delivery shall pay the assessed value of such property and all damages for the taking and detention thereof, and all costs which may accrue in the action then this bond shall be void, otherwise in full force and effect.
