J. P. Westermann, plaintiff, against John Eisentrant and Peter Jennie, defendants,
In the Circuit Court of Jefferson County, Missouri;
January Term 1874.

Plaintiff states, that defendant John Esentrant executed and delivered his promissory Note, herewith filed, dated Hillsboro, Mo. January 10th 1873, to defendant Peter Jenni, by which he promised, to pay to the order of defendant Peter Jenni the sum of three hundred and thirty dollars and twenty seven cents, six months after the date thereof, for value received, negotiable and payable without defalcation or discount, and with interest from date at the rate of ten percent per annum, and in which defendant John Esentrant waived all his right to claim any benefit from the homestead or exemption laws of the State of Missouri, upon any judgment, rendered upon said note.

Plaintiff further states, that before the maturity of said Note the defendant Peter Jenni assigned the same by indorsement and delivered the same to plaintiff, and that the defendant Peter Jenni at the time of such assignment ~~also deposited~~ ~~and executed a note to plaintiff~~ ^{being} that entered into an agreement with plaintiff, by endorsement on said Note, by which he, defendant Peter Jenni, waived his right and the necessity, that plaintiff at the maturity of said Note ~~present~~ the same for payment to defendant John Cicerant, and demand ✓ payment thereof, that in case of non-payment of the same by the maker John Esentant he plaintiff protest the same or cause the same to be protested for non-payment, and that of such presentment, demand^{and} protest Notice be given by plaintiff to defendant Peter Jenni, ^{Plaintiff states} and that in consequence of such agreement between defendant Peter Jenni and Plaitiff, no such presentment for and demand of payment, and no protest for non-payment was made, and no Notice thereof given.

Plaintiff further states, that before the bringing of this suit he has demanded payment of said Note of each defendant, but that neither principal nor interest thereon has been paid, and that the whole amount of the principal sum and interest thereon remains still due and unpaid, wherefore plaintiff asks judgment against defendants for the principal sum of three hundred and thirty dollars and twenty seven cents, and interest thereon at the rate of ten percent from the date of said Note, the 10th of January 1873, and costs of suit.

Henry F. Shreve,
Atty. for plaintiff.
