STATE OF MISSOURI,
COUNTY OF JEFFERSON

TWENTY-SIXTH JUDICIAL CIRCUIT.
IN THE CIRCUIT COURT,
May TERM. A. D., 1874.

The Grand Jurors of the State of Missouri, duly empanelled, sworn and charged to inquire within and for the body of the county of Jefferson, upon their oath do present that Jacob Eiselbron, late of the County of Jefferson, in the State of Missouri, did, on the first day of the week, commonly called Sunday, to-wit: On the Twelfth day of April, in the year 1874, at the County and State last aforesaid, then and there sell and retail one gill of whiskey for ten cents, one gill of brandy for ten cents, the same being then and there intoxicating liquors to a person to these Jurors unknown, contrary to the form of the Statute in such case made and provided, and against the peace and dignity of the State.

And the Grand Jurors aforesaid, on their oath aforesaid, do further present that Jacob Eiselbron, late of the County of Jefferson, in the State of Missouri, did, on the first day of the week, commonly called Sunday, to-wit: On the Twelfth day of April, in the year 1874, at the County and State last aforesaid, then and there sell and retail one gill of beer for ten cents, one gill of wine for ten cents, the same being then and there intoxicating liquors, to a person to these Jurors unknown, contrary to the form of the Statute in such case made and provided, and against the peace and dignity of the State.

And the Grand Jurors aforesaid, on their oath aforesaid, do further present that Jacob Eiselbron, late of the County of Jefferson, at the County and State aforesaid, on the 12th day of April, in the year 1874, the same being then and there the first day of the week, commonly called Sunday, did then and there keep open a certain Grocery or Drapery Shop contrary to the form of the Statute in such case made and provided, and against the peace and dignity of the State.
