State of Missouri }
County of Jefferson } Twenty Sixth Judicial Circuit
In the Circuit Court
May Term 1874

The Grand Jurors of the State of Missouri, duly empaneled, sworn and charged to enquire within and for the body of the County of Jefferson in the State of Missouri, now here in Court, upon their oath do present, That Thomas Cheatham Peter Cheatham, Calvin McMillen, and Joseph McMillen, late of Jefferson County aforesaid, on the fourth day of April in the year Eighteen hundred and seventy four, at the County of Jefferson in the State of Missouri, with force and arms, did unlawfully, riotously, routously and tumultuously assemble and gather themselves together with intent then and there to do an unlawful act, with force, and in a violent, unlawful and tumultuous manner against the peace of the State, and against the person and property of one John Loose then and there being, and that the said Thomas Cheatham, Peter Cheatham, Calvin McMillen and Joseph McMillen, being so assembled and met together, did then and there mutually and unlawfully agree to assist one another in the furtherance of such unlawful act, and did then ^{in furtherance of such unlawful purposes and acts} and there ^{riotously, routously, and in} a violent, unlawful, and tumultuous manner, enter the Dwelling House and Grocery of the said John Loose, (the Grocery being kept in one room of the said Dwelling ^{House} being a part of the same) and said Dwelling ^{house} being situate in the County aforesaid, and did then and there ^{in furtherance of such unlawful purposes} in said Grocery, ^{riotously, routously, and in} a violent, unlawful and tumultuous manner, (to the great terror and disturbance of the said John Loose and his family) brake up and destroy the glasses, dishes and other furniture ^{and there} then being in said grocery, and compelled by threats and violence the said John Loose, and his wife, Margaret Loose to give them ^{divers bottles of} whiskey, and did ^{riotously, routously, and in a violent, unlawful, and tumultuous manner} then and there attempt to break down the door of the ^{said} Dwelling House, and to forcibly take money from the person of the said Margaret Loose, and did then ^{riotously, routously, and in a violent, unlawful, and tumultuous manner} and there draw pistols and shoot divers times against the door and wall of the room of said Dwelling House, then ^{and there} occupied by the family of said John Loose, and other wrongs and injuries then and there did to the said John Loose, and his family and to the property of the said John Loose, to the great terror and disturbance of the said John Loose and his family, contrary to the form of the Statute in such case made and provided, and against the peace and dignity of the State.
