Adora Hensley Plaintiff

vs

Mark Hensley Defendant

In the Jefferson Circuit Court, January 1878

Plaintiff states that she was lawfully married to Defendant in Jefferson County Missouri on the 1st day of April 1877: that she continued to live with Defendant from and after that day as his wife until the 13th day of September, 1877: that during all that time she treated Defendant with kindness and affection and faithfully demonstrated herself ~~on the wife~~ and discharged all her duties as the wife of Defendant: but the said Defendant wholly disregarding his duties as the husband of Plaintiff on or about the 13th day of September 1877 without just cause or excuse abandoned Plaintiff and has continued away ~~from~~ from her ever since: that during the time they lived together as husband and wife Defendant offered to her such person and indignities as rendered her condition intolerable in this that is to say - He was in the habit of cursing & abusing her without cause and he almost continually accused her of infidelity to him and this last charge was made so continuously that she was rendered miserable and her condition intolerable thereby.

Plaintiff further states that she is possessed in her own right of the following property which she brought to the marriage viz: Three head of horses, 2 milk cows & fourteen head of hogs.

She states that she has resided in Jefferson County and that of her own more than one whole year before the filing of this petition.

Wherefore plaintiff prays to be divorced from the bonds of matrimony heretofore contracted with Defendant as aforesaid and to adjudge & decree to her the aforesaid property & all other property she may own to her obligation in such other relief as she may be entitled to.

Atty for Plaintiff

This affiant states that the facts stated in the above petition are true according to the best knowledge & belief and that the Complaint is not made out of spite or by collusion, fear or restraint between plaintiff and defendant for the mere purpose of being separated from each other but in sincerity & truth for causes alleged in the Complaint.

Jefferson County Missouri

Now comes the defendant and answering the petition of the plaintiff says that he denies each and every allegation thereof, except such as are hereinafter specifically confessed and admitted.

Defendant further answering the petition says that he and plaintiff were lawfully married on the 1st day of April 1877 and lived together as husband and wife from that time until the 13th day of September 1877, but defendant denies that during all that time the plaintiff treated him with kindness and affection and faithfully demeaned her-self and discharged all her duties as the wife of defendant.

Defendant denies that he, on the 13th day of September 1877 or at any other time, without any good cause or excuse, abandoned plaintiff and continued away from her ever since. On the contrary defendant avers that he always treated plaintiff with kindness and at all times faithfully demeaned
