Millie Maroden plaintiff vs

John M. Maroden defendant ss

In the Circuit Court of Jefferson County, state of Missouri, September term 1886.

Plaintiff states that on the twenty second day of March 1881 in the County of Jefferson in the state of Missouri she was lawfully married to the defendant; that plaintiff continued to live with defendant as his wife, from and after the day and year aforesaid until ~~about~~ the first day of April 1882, that during all that time plaintiff faithfully demeaned herself, and discharged all her duties as wife of defendant, and at all times treated him with kindness and affection; That in September 1882 defendant was convicted of stealing hogs and sentenced to two years in the State Penitentiary; that defendant has abandoned plaintiff for over three years ~~without reasonable cause~~.
Plaintiff further states that there was born of the marriage aforesaid one child, of tender years, a female now aged three years.

Plaintiff further states that she has resided within this state one whole year next before the filing of this petition.

The plaintiff, therefore, prays to be divorced from the bonds of matrimony contracted as aforesaid with the defendant; that she may have the custody and care of her said infant child; and that the court will adjudge to her such other orders touching the premises as may be proper

This affiant, the plaintiff, makes ~~an~~ oath and says that the facts stated in the above petition are true according to the best knowledge and belief of the plaintiff, and that the complaint is not made out of levity, or by collusion, fear or restraint between the plaintiff and defendant, for the purpose of being separated from each other, but in sincerity and truth, for the causes mentioned in the petition

ORDER OF PUBLICATION.

STATE OF MISSOURI, } ss.
County of Jefferson, }

In the Circuit court of said county, September term, 1886, 11th day, Wednesday September 29, 1886.

Milhe Marsden versus John M. Marsden defendant.

At this day comes the plaintiff herein, by her attorney, W. H. H. Thomas and the undersigned, alleging, among other things, that John Marsden is a resident of the State of Missouri:

Whereupon it is ordered by the court that said defendant be notified by publication that plaintiff has commenced a suit against him in this court, the object and general nature of which is to obtain a decree of said court, dissolving the bonds of matrimony now existing between plaintiff and defendant, on the grounds of abandonment without a reasonable cause for over three years; and because in September, 1882, defendant was convicted of stealing hogs and sentenced to two years in the State penitentiary; plaintiff also asks for the care, custody and control of the issue of said marriage; and that unless said John M. Marsden should appear at this court, at the next term thereof, to be begun and holden at the courthouse in the town of Hillboro, in said county, on the second Monday of January, next, and on or before the sixth day of said term, if the term shall so long continue—and if not, then on or before the last day of said term—answer or plead to the petition in said cause, the same will be taken as confessed and judgment will be rendered accordingly.

And it is further ordered that a copy hereof be published, according to law, in the Jefferson Democrat, a newspaper printed and published in Jefferson county, State of Missouri, and this cause continued.

A true copy from the record.
