Sims, Eliza C.

vs

Sims, Albert A.

Divorce

Married 2 February 1886;
desertion

State of Missouri, County of Jefferson ss.
In the Circuit Court.

To September Term 1888.

Eliza C Sims Plaintiff,

vs

} For Divorce.

Albert A Sims Defendant.

Plaintiff states that she was lawfully married to the defendant on the 2nd day of February 1886 at the County of Jefferson in the State of Missouri. That from that time until the committing of the grievances hereinafter mentioned, she conducted herself as a good and dutiful wife. That on or about the 9th day of June, ~~last year~~ ¹⁸⁸⁷ the defendant not regarding his duty as a husband, deserted the plaintiff wilfully and without reasonable cause, and absented himself without the consent of the plaintiff, for more than one whole year and up to the time of bringing this suit, and since the date last aforesaid and in fact since the date of marriage has failed to provide a home and support for plaintiff.

That plaintiff is now residing and has for more than a year past resided in the County of Jefferson, State aforesaid.

Plaintiff further states that defendant is not a resident of the State of Missouri.

Plaintiff therefore prays, that the bonds of matrimony now existing between plaintiff and defendant may be forever dissolved and that she be divorced from said defendant; that she be restored to her name by a former marriage to wit, Eliza W. Coon; that upon a final hearing of this cause, the defendant be adjudged to pay her a reasonable sum by way of alimony and for such other and farther relief as to the court

may seem meet.

sworn says: that the petition and the facts therein
stated therein are true according to the best knowledge
and belief of plaintiff, and that the complaint is not made out of envy, or by collusion, fear or restraint between plaintiff and defendant, for the mere purpose of being separated from each other, but in sincerity and truth for the causes
mentioned in the petition. And that defendant is not a resident of the State of Missouri.
