Moss, Thomas E. vs.

Dearing, Willis
Williams, Robert

Debt

$135.56 collected by defendants as agent for plaintiff, the collector

Thomas E. Moss Plaintiff

Against

Willis Dearing and Robert Williams Defendants

In the Circuit Court of Jefferson County Mo.

To January Term 1889.

The Plaintiff states that during the years 1885 and 1886 he was the duly appointed and authorized Collector of the Revenue within and for Jefferson County Missouri; that during the month of 1886 plaintiff being desirous of collecting a large amount of taxes due from tax payers of said County employed defendants jointly to assist him in making such collection within and for the territory of Valle Township in said County and appointed said defendants as Deputy Collectors for that purpose; that thereupon plaintiff turned over to defendants a number of tax bills for the taxes due by divers individuals in said township aggregating the sum of about Eighteen Hundred Dollars; that defendants thereupon received said bills and jointly undertook the collection of the same; that of the bills received by defendants as aforesaid they collected from the tax payers aforesaid the sum of Seventeen Hundred and twenty four & $\frac{7}{100}$ Dollars, of which sum so collected they settled and paid over to plaintiff as Collector aforesaid the sum of Fifteen Hundred & Eighty four & $\frac{9}{100}$ Dollars leaving a balance yet unpaid of One Hundred & Thirty five & $\frac{56}{100}$ dollars; and plaintiff avers that he as Collector aforesaid settled with parties entitled thereto and paid over ^{to the credit of the proper funds} the full amount of money collected by defendants as aforesaid, and that there is due and owing to him the amount hereinabove stated to wit: the sum of One Hundred & Thirty five and $\frac{56}{100}$ dollars, for which sum he prays judgment against defendants. -
