Catron, Christian

vs.

Vansant, Abner

Debt, note

Debt $142.65

State of Missouri }
County of Jefferson } ss.

In the Circuit Court - April Term 1824.

Jefferson County, to wit: Christian Catron by ~~himself~~ ~~his~~ his attorney complains of Abner Vansant of a plea that he render unto the plaintiff the sum of One Hundred and Forty-two dollars & sixty-five cents which he, the said defendant, justly owes the plaintiff and which he unjustly detains from him - to wit - For that whereas the said Abner Vansant heretofore, to wit, on the tenth day of June in the year One thousand eight hundred and twenty three at the county aforesaid, by his certain obligatory note, signed with his hand and sealed with his seal and here in Court now produced, promised to pay the said Christian Catron the sum of One Hundred and Forty-two dollars and sixty-five cents and the said Plaintiff says that although the said writing obligatory hath long since been due and payable, according to the tenor and effect thereof, yet the said Vansant hath not paid unto the said Plaintiff the said sum above mentioned or any part thereof, and the said Plaintiff in fact says, that the said Vansant, although often requested to pay the same hath hitherto refused, and still doth refuse to pay the said sum of money, or any part thereof, and therefore he sues &c to the damage of the plaintiff two hundred dollars
