Wm. Wright

State of Missouri }
County of Jefferson } ss. Jefferson County Circuit Court—April Term 1824.

Jefferson County, to wit: Breckin S. Bell assignee of Murray McConnell, by his Attorney complains of William Wright, of a Plea, that the defendant render unto the plaintiff the sum of One Hundred dollars, lawful money of the United States, with interest thereon at the rate of eight per cent per annum from the ninth day of August—One thousand eight hundred and twenty-two to the present date which said sum of money the said defendant justly owes the said plaintiff, and from him unjustly detaining—For that whereas the said defendant William Wright on the ninth day of August in the year of our Lord One thousand eight hundred and twenty-two, and at the County aforesaid by his certain writing Obligatory, called a promissory note, with his proper hand subscribed, and now in court produced, then and there promised to pay Murray McConnell seventeen months after date the sum of One Hundred dollars lawful money of the United States with eight per cent interest thereon from the date aforesaid, which said sum of money hath not been paid to the said Murray McConnell or any part thereof, although often requested so to do, but to pay the same did refuse, and still doth refuse to pay the same—Afterwards, to wit on the eleventh day of October in the year of our Lord Eighteen Hundred and twenty three, and at the county aforesaid the said Murray McConnell, by his certain writing of assignment endorsed on the note aforesaid, assigned the ~~same~~ ^{said note} to the plaintiff E. S. Bee for value received, by virtue of which assignment and by force of the Statute in such case made and provided an action hath accrued to the plaintiff to demand and to have of the said defendant the value of said note or instrument of writing - and the said plaintiff says that although the said writing obligatory hath long since been due and payable according to the tenor and effect thereof - yet the said ^{was} Wright hath not paid unto the said plaintiff the said sum of money above mentioned or any part thereof, and the said plaintiff in fact says that the said Wright although often requested to pay the same hath hitherto refused and neglected, and still doth refuse and neglect to pay the same or any ^{to the amount of the} part thereof ^{fifty dollars} and therefore he brings his suit
