In the Circuit Court

April Term 1824

Jefferson County, to wit: John Smith J. by his attorney complains of William Hogan of a Plea that he render unto the plaintiff the sum of five hundred and seventeen dollars which he the said defendant justly owes the plaintiff and from him unjustly detaining — For that whereas the said defendant William Hogan heretofore, (to wit) on the twentieth day of March Eighteen hundred and twenty four at the County of Jefferson aforesaid, by his certain writing ^{obligatory} ~~promissory~~, called a ~~promissory note~~, signed with his hand and sealed with his seal ^(and here in Court now produced) promised to pay the said plaintiff, John Smith J. or order after date five hundred and seventeen dollars, and the said Plaintiff, John Smith J. says that the said writing obligatory ~~promissory note~~ is now due and payable according to the tenor and effect thereof yet said William Hogan hath not paid the said plaintiff the said sum or any part thereof, and the said plaintiff in fact says that although the said William Hogan hath often been request to pay the same, he hath hitherto refused and neglected, and still doth refuse and neglect - to pay said sum of money to the damage of said ~~pt~~ six hundred dollars and or any part thereof - and therefore he brings his suit - &c
