April term 1839

Isaac Harrington by his Guardian Austin Brown Complain of James Owen in Controversy of a plea of trespass on the case, on promises, for that whereas heretofore to wit on the sixteenth day of May in the year of our Lord eighteen hundred and thirty eight at the County of Jefferson aforesaid the said defendant was indebted to the said plaintiff in the sum of one hundred and eighty dollars for so much money by the said plaintiff before that time paid him out and expended to and for the use of the said defendant at his special instance and request, Also for so much money by the said defendant before that time had and received to and for the use of the said plaintiff, And being so indebted he the said defendant in consideration thereof afterwards to wit on the day hereinafter mentioned, undertook and then and there faithfully promised the said plaintiff to pay him the said last mentioned sum of money, when he the said defendant should be thereunto afterwards requested

Nevertheless the said defendant not regarding his said several promises and undertakings, hath not as yet paid the said sum of money or any part thereof to the said plaintiff, although often requested to to do, but to pay the same hath hitherto neglected and refused and still doth neglect and refuse
