State of Missouri: Jefferson County Set

In the Jefferson County Circuit Court August Term 1840.

To the Hon the Circuit Court, appears William Brady complains of John Stroup Senior in custody of a plea of trespass in the case for that whereas heretofore to wit on or about the first day of March 1839, at the County aforesaid, in consideration that the said William Brady would buy of the said John Stroup Senior at his special instance & request, a certain horse, at and for a certain large sum of money, that is to say the sum of fifty dollars, he the said John Stroup Senior, undertook, and then and there faithfully promised the said Brady that the said horse was sound, and the said Brady in fact saith, that he, confiding in the said promise and undertaking of the said Stroup, afterwards, that is to say on the day and year aforesaid, at the County aforesaid, did buy the said horse of and from the said Stroup, at and for the said price or sum of money. And whereas also, afterwards, that is to say on the day and year aforesaid, at the County aforesaid, in considera-tion that the said William Brady, at the like special instance and request of the said John Stroup Sen^r had then and there bought of the said Stroup a certain other horse, and had then and there paid to the said Stroup a certain other large sum of money or its equivalent, that is to say another sum of fifty dollars or its equiva-lent for the same, he the said John Stroup Sen^r, undertook, and then and there faithfully promised the said Brady that the said last mentioned horse was sound, yet the said Brady avers, that the said several horses, at the time of the making of the said several promises and undertakings, and also at the time of making the aforesaid sales thereof, were not sound, but were then and there unsound and by reason thereof the said several horses became ^{& were} of no use or value to the said Brady that is to say at the County aforesaid to the damage of the said Brady the sum of one hundred & fifty dollars and therefore he sues &c

Know all men by these presents. That we John Stroup as principal and Daniel S. Fletcher as security, are held and firmly bound unto William Brady in the sum of three hundred dollars, to the payment of which sum well and truly to be made, we do hereby bind ourselves, our heirs and our representatives, jointly & severally firmly by these presents, sealed with our seals and dated this 27th day of April 1840. The condition of the above obligation is such, that whereas the said John Stroup now hath been arrested by the Sheriff of Jefferson County, upon a writ of habeas returnable to the next term of the Circuit Court, to be held on the second Monday of August next, in the Town of Millston within and for the County aforesaid, to answer unto the said William Brady as aforesaid in a plea of trespass on the case, to the damages of said plaintiff one hundred and fifty dollars.

Now if no judgement shall be given against John Stroup in said suit, or if judgement be given against said John Stroup or, in said suit, and he shall pay the amount of the recovery or surrender, in execution thereof, or the said Daniel S.
Fletcher the security for him will do it, then this obligation shall be void otherwise it shall remain in full force. Given
