day at the house of Eligah McCreary in Jefferson county and State of Missouri before me Willard Trissell a justice of the peace within the county aforesaid in a certain cause now depending before justice Bryan at Hillsboro in Jefferson county Missouri between Eligah McCreary Plaintiff and Richard Hendrickson and John Stroup Sr. defendants on the part of the Plaintiff. Mrs. Margaret McCreary being produced sworn and examined on the part of the Plaintiff deposeseth and saith that she is acquainted with the aforesaid defendants and was present when the contract was made with the parties and that the said defendants Richard Hendrickson and John Stroup Sr. agreed to build for said Plaintiff Eligah Mc-Creary a good chimney with two fireplaces the flues of which they were to carry out to the top of the chimney separate on nearly so this deponent does not recollect which which chimney the said defendants agreed to build for eighteen dollars and this deponent further saith that the contract was made with both of the aforesaid defendants the deponent further saith when the said defendants finished the chimney the said plaintiff was not pleased with the job and the said defendants further agreed that if the chimney did not do well they would take it down and rebuild it without any additional charge and further the deponent saith not action between Elijah McLeary plaintiff and Richard Hendrickson defendant with John Throckmorton as a defendant now if on such ap-peal, the judgment of the Justice be affirmed, or if on the trial in the Circuit Court judgment be given against the defendant, and he shall satisfy such judgment or if his appeal shall be dismissed and he shall pay the judgment of the Justice together with the costs of the appeal, then this recogni-tion shall be void. Richard Hendrickson
