November Term 1841

The County of Jefferson complains of Lepe Lowe that he render unto her the sum of one hundred dollars which he owes and unjustly detains from her. For that whereas heretofore to wit on the thirty first day of January in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and thirty eight, the said Lepe Lowe at the County of Jefferson by his certain writing obligatory, sealed with his seal, and to the Court here now shewn, the date whereof is the day and year aforesaid, promised to pay to the County of Jefferson, or her assigns one hundred dollars, and legal interest thereon from date, at the rate of ten per centum per annum until paid, for value received, and twelve months after date. Nevertheless the said defendant although often requested hath not paid to the said plaintiff the said sum of money above demanded, or any part thereof, but so to & hath hitherto wholly refused and still doth refuse, to the damage of the said plaintiff in the sum of fifty dollars and therefore she sues
