summons issued against Defendant, January the 29th 1853, returnable the 11th day of February 1853. - On this day, the summons being returned, duly executed, and the Parties appearing, and being ready for trial, the cause is submitted to the Justice, who proceeded to hear the allegations and proofs of the Parties, but, pending the trial the Plaintiff voluntarily took a new suit.

Wherefore, Judgment of new suit is rendered against the Plaintiff, for the costs of the suit, and that execution issue therefor. - On this day, February the 19th 1853, Arrows Cook, Plaintiff, came before the Justice, and made a motion to have the judgment of new suit set aside, and a new trial granted him in the above cause, which motion was over-ruled, and his application refused by the Justice, - and, on the 21st day of February 1853, the Plaintiff made application for an appeal, which, on his filing Affidavit and Bond as required by law, was granted him by the Justice on the same day.
