Divorce

Married March 1851; desertion

Cynthia Lollar, - plaintiff, } In the Circuit Against } Court.
Josse Lollar, - defendant } Jefferson County

Plaintiff states that some time in the month of March in the year 1851, she was married to the Defendant in the County of Jefferson and State of Missouri, in which County she has resided ever since, - that in Sept. than two months after her marriage with Defendant he deserted and abandoned her, and has ever since failed to furnish her with any support, or maintenance, - that the Defendant, without a reasonable cause, has abandoned himself from Plaintiff for the space of two years. That the Defendant, while he lived with Plaintiff as her husband, was extremely disagreeable and quarrelsome, and that he on several occasions, without any grounds for the assertions charged her with acts of infidelity towards him, and in that, and other unfounded charges and declarations, offered her such personal indignities as to render her condition intolerable. Plaintiff states that she has resided in the State of Missouri, more than one year, next before the filing of this Petition, and that the Causes against Defendant, and were committed in Jefferson County.

Plaintiff therefore, for the causes herein set forth, prays the Court to grant her a decree of divorce from the bonds of matrimony now existing with Defendant, and to grant such other relief as may be consistent with equity.

Cynthia Saller against Jesse Saller

In the Circuit Court
Jefferson County

Defendant states, that he is not guilty of the charges in petition alleged.

He states that plaintiff was while living with defendant in the habit of absenting herself from home for several days and nights in succession without any cause or business, that she was in the habit of riding about the country with men with whom she could have no legitimate business, and was when in their company too free & intimate for a prudent wife and for these causes defendant often would scold her and reprove her and endeavor to reform her course in these particulars.

He states that he has not deserted or abandoned her as stated in petition but has been willing to live with her & has even proposed to move to his farm on the Esage with her when she refused to go. He denies having offered to plaintiff such personal indignities as to render her condition intolerable. & never made any other or heavier charges against plaintiff than those stated above. Neither was this defendant disagreeable or quarrelsome. He did occasionally have a family quarrel but this is incident to the married life, and was after brought about by plaintiff herself without any provocation on the part of this defendant.

Defendant further states that he has not failed to furnish her with support as will be seen by receipts which he has in possession for groceries & schooling of her children taxes and debts of her contracting amounting to $93.82 all of which has been paid within the time of the alleged separation.

He states that he has been always willing to live with his said wife but she has always refused to do so. Defendant therefore denies each and every charge contained in petition. & having fully answered books to be answered with
