Riot

Defendants assaulted Charles L. Taylor and robbed him of $6, his horse, and his pistol; depositions

1
Witness on the part of the prosecution Examination in chief,

Mr. Taylor

Says ^{going to Mr. Arnold's & then} he ~~started~~ ^{drove} to Mr. Crow's

When I got there I found Frank Newman & Paul and Peter Ernich & Dietrich Degette. - They appeared to be friendly - they treated & I treated, don't know who treated first, After that they told me they had come down to get some cider, I expected it was pretty near all ready for them, & that he was ready to fulfil his contract at any time. They had some talk after that, I said let us go, they had some words, don't know what they were, the cider ready & did seize him. I got behind Mr. Crow's bar - they rushed after me - Mr. Paul took a pistol from ~~him~~ ^{me} - dragged me around the end of the bar. Knuckled ~~him~~ ^{me} down struck ~~him~~ ^{me} over the head - dragged ~~him~~ ^{me} out of the house & demanded my money - or ~~his~~ ^{my} life - put ~~my~~ ^{my} hand into ~~his~~ ^{my} pocket took out some money, which Paul knuckled out of ~~his~~ ^{my} hand - then demanded me to pick it up - I told him I would not & did not. Then that man (pointing to Dietrich) took him by the throat - ~~they~~ ^{dragged me behind the saloon with a whip} held me & searched me, all our talk. All I had in my vest pocket & pantaloons' pocket - They wrested my horse from me - took me up to Mr. Crow's House - Paul told me that he was deputised to translate that bill from German into English - then told me he had put $10 more than the bill called for - for expenses,

The Taylor said he was ready to fulfill his contract, & had always been with Detrick but to sign that paper he would not. Then Ruland told me to sign it, my^{or} life was gone. I told him again I would not sign it. He said again sign it & save your life. Ezra Brew came in or was in at the time. I mentioned to him that they forced me to sign what I did not owe.

I think he observed that it made no difference that it could not be collected or something so, then I was taken out & put into the wagon, or made get into the wagon. I wanted to get on my horse & they would not let me. Then they drove me up ~~the road~~ ^{an} up to my house. When we got there I told Mr. Waters to settle with ^{him} I was afraid of my life, & treated them as well as I could because I was afraid of my life.

Mr. Ruland stated in the House it was well I did sign, & if it had not been for his protection on the road I would have been killed any how. That he was deputized by ^{Mr.} Brew to take charge of me up to my house.

Craft Examined -

Met them at Brews' grocery. I don't know the first words that were passed - told them there was some hidden there could have ~~supposed~~ ^{understood} them to say. I rushed at ^{him} me at the same time. They felt inclined to seize me. I ran behind the counter to try to get ^{my pistol} it out. They said seize him. I know they said seize him. it was said close by the counter. I understood ~~them~~ ^{him} to say seize him. Mr. Brew was I think behind the counter. They took the pistol away from me before they dragged me out.

Dustin
Who was in the room but those four men & Mrs.

Crow. Remembers of know others = I think Mrs. - Crown was there. Did ^{not} hear any one say, he minded he (Taylor) has a pistol - Took the pistol from behind Warners Counter - Before I took the money out of my pocket, they had knelt me down - After they took me out of the house, I know that the Blacksmith was at the grocery door - at one time
- before there was any difficulty

When I got back to my house, I asked Ruland in my house, I asked him to drink, I told him he had been a friend to me - that I was opined of my life the reason I told him so - ~~Mr. Waters was present at that time~~ . Don't know whether I Ripped Ruland or not, might have done so.

C. L. Taylor

Ex. Crow

Examination in chief -

Mr. Crow - said,

The occurrence was on Tuesday of September 1846 Mr. Ruland, Mr. Newland Mr.
Emrich & Mr. Detrick came to my house & asked if Mr. Taylor had been there. I told them, no - They took something to drink, in 15 or 20 minutes or thereabouts, Mr. Taylor did come - Quick as he (Taylor) came to the door, he beckoned Mr.
Detrick out - they came in again, and had something to drink (Mr. Taylor treated). Then a conversation took place about 1/2 bbl. liquor
- Mr. Taylor said he had sold it to Mr. Warner, and that it did not hold out - Mr. Detrick said he had taken it for 1/2 a bbl. he had put a stick in & measured it & took it for 1/2 bbl.

I replied that it was not worth while to fall out about a few gallons of liquor. Detrick said he would throw away the liquor & settle —

That subject being dropped, they had some more ale — Mr. Detrick replied he had been at a heap of trouble & expense & wanted Taylor to pay him — Taylor said he would pay him, all the money he had & all the credit he had — Mr. Taylor said further that, that matter was settled, then Mr. Taylor replied that there was enough said about it, & consider myself insulted — he (Taylor) put his hand in his bosom, & was drawing his pistol; Detrick then bared his ~~bosom~~ ^{own} bosom & said I am not afraid of your pistol — Mr. Ireland then went around the counter & took hold of Taylor as he was drawing the pistol, & got hold of the pistol — he then forced Mr. Taylor against the counter at the far end, and got him down on the floor. he (Ireland) struck him once, & as he was drawing to strike a second time I caught him by the arm.

Mrs. Crow then came & took the pistol from Mr. Ireland — Mr. Ireland made no resistance but gave up the pistol without a word. I then forced them out of the Grocery, — When Taylor got out of the door Detrick took him by the bosom, & said pay me Taylor I want my money & pushed him along past the Blacksmith Shop — I was then before the Grocery, & saw them gather around him — more than ten steps from me — I thought they were treating him too rough & I came up, ^{that time} about — Taylor said he would pay them. He Taylor, I think drew his hand out of his pocket, with money in it — certainly he had money in his hand — Some person

(One of this party) knocked the money out of his hand, when that was done, they told Taylor to pick it up - he said he would not - they then told me to pick it up, I would not, I counted it as it lay on the ground - there was $4.00, under or over, dont know which, Detrich, pushed Taylor from the money, through a little passage between the Blacksmith's ^{shop} & another house, - I said to Mr.
~~and by the way~~ Puland you are all doing wrong, - he said that Detrich ^{me by the arm & said that} would do him no harm as something to that amount, - I ^{I says not satisfied} then came to another passage ~~was not satisfied~~ between the Blacksmith shop & Grocery, I ~~was not~~ satisfied when I got around there - Detrich was saying, he (Taylor) had more money, Taylor said search me & opened his coat and allowed him to put his hand in his vest pocket, & he took out $1.50 - then all the money was brought together & it amounted to $6.15 - understood that the Blacksmith & Mr. Brown picked it up, Detrich took the money & told I put it in his pocket - Sometime afterwards he made me credit an account of $6.15, an account the had against Mr. Taylor for goods bought in St Louis.
That ended that difficulty - every thing seemed to be quiet, & Taylor said that he would go up and let them have the bid. Mr. Puland came up into my room - think Taylor was there Mr. Puland had written a instrument & wanted me to read it - told him I could not read it, had not my specs - Mr. Puland requested Taylor to sign it, Taylor objected, I said why not if it was right & just, it would end the difficulty Mr. Taylor then did sign it - we all went out into the road - Mr. Taylor wanted to ride - they objected, said he should go in the Waggon - I said let him ride - He Taylor said he would ride on the horse behind the Waggon - they objected - Taylor said he would not get in the Waggon - and started on foot Emery & Newsum stopped him, ^{perhaps} caught hold of him - both had hold of him - Emery was going to strike him & I swung him back and told them to let Taylor go. Emery then came at me, to strike me, I told him to strike if he dare - he then cooled down & said he had always been my friend & apologized - I said if they did give them up I would fine them -

I then spoke to Reuland to assist me in protecting Taylor, which he did - the pos subsidie them - I then gave Taylor in charge of Reuland & requested him to protect him, that I would hold him accountable - Reuland said he would do so -

Mr Taylor got in the Waggon ^{or} was - ~~anyhow~~ assisted in the waggon - they all drove off except Newsum who rode the horse, & went with them
