vs.
Banford Taylor

Prosecution for Larceny
Before W. H. M. Floyd, a Justice of the peace of said County.

Samuel Harrison of lawful age, sworn & examined, says, on last Friday week, the defendant, Banford Taylor, came to my house, in said County, & remained there until last Wednesday, ^{the 21st Oct., 1857} in said Jefferson County. On that night my horse was taken out of my stable, the saddle house broken open, and my saddle & bridle taken also, and said Taylor went away that night unknown to me. Next morning, suspecting Taylor, I started from the pursuit, taking the track of the horse from the saddle house, & followed it to Big River - at Roberts ford, - saw James Roberts, who described the man & the horse. From the description given by Roberts, I went on to Potosi, - At Potosi I gave a description of my horse, - as follows, a light iron gray, heavy mane, - about 7 years old, shod all round, - and described the man I suspected of taking him, as follows, A young good looking man, 16, 16, who gave his name at my house as Briskey. They at once said it is Banford Taylor. After looking at various places, I came to Potosi on Sunday last, & they told me they had the man in jail. I went to the
