Greeting

Whereas P. E. Tower

has hitherto this day given information under oath to me J. M. Hensley a Justice of the peace within and for the County of Jefferson that on the 26 day of August last at the County aforesaid he did see Sam Thomson as the Clerk of E. B. Hannah sell liquor as a dramshop keeper - when the said P. E. Tower demanded licenses of said Hannah which he did not produce - These are therefore to command you forthwith to apprehend the said Hannah and bring him before me to answer the premises and further to be dett. with according to law. Given under my hand at the County of Jefferson aforesaid this the 2nd day of Sept. 1838.

State of Missouri } In the Circuit Court County of Jefferson } November Term 1857

The Grand jurors of the State of Missouri, now here in Court duly empanelled, sworn and charged to inquire within and for the body of the County of Jefferson, upon their oath present that Ebenezer B. Hanna late of said County of Jefferson, on the twenty fifth day of November one thousand eight hundred and fifty seven, with force and arm at the County of Jefferson, unlawfully did sell intoxicating liquors, that is to say Whiskey, Brandy, rum, gin, Beer and Ale, to wit, one glass and one pint of each, of said liquors, to each of the following named persons, to wit Lewis B. Waters, James C. Owens and to divers other persons then and there being to the jurors of one said unknown — at the price and sum of five cents for each glass and ten cents for each pint so sold and permitted the same to be drunk at the place of sale, the same being a quantity, by then on gallon at one time, without then and there having in force and effect any license authorizing him to sell as above said.

Against the peace and dignity of the State.
