Francis Morgan Plaintiff

vs

Amos Rubel Defendant

In the Circuit Court of Jefferson County

The Garnishee Peter Kutz answers the interrogatories of the plaintiff & says that he gave to Amos Rubel on the 4th day of December 1857 his promissory note for the sum of two hundred dollars payable at twelve months after date on which he paid three dollars leaving a balance of $197 of principal.

Besides this the said garnishee denies that he owes the said Amos Rubel any money or is indebted in any sum of money nor has he any goods money, effects or property belonging to said Amos Rubel in his possession or under his control.

The garnishee further states that Amos Rubel has sued him in the Circuit Court of Jefferson County Mo on the note above admitted & the suit is yet pending in said Court & no judgment rendered on said note.
