vs.

John Lee, &
William S. Howe,
Garnishee

In the Circuit Court
Jefferson County,

William S. Howe, a garnishee in the above cause, for answer to the interrogatories filed therein against him, states that, at the April Term 1858, the said John Lee, recovered judgment in the Circuit Court of said Jefferson County, against this Garnishee for three hundred and sixty ~~five~~ dollars & 73 cents; but this Garnishee does not consider that he then owed said Lee one cent, or that he owes him any thing now. He therefore took an appeal from said judgment to the Supreme Court of Mis-sour, at St. Louis, where said suit is now pending undecided. If therefore said judgment should be affirmed, he will owe said John Lee $244,50 cents, (one third of said judgment having been assigned, on the 4th of May 1858, to John W. Noell,) but, if said judgment be reversed, (as he believes it will) then he will not owe said John Lee anything, unless said Lee should again recover judgment against him, which he does not believe.
