Prosecution for Grand Larceny, on a charge made by Edward Bookan, ^{against} ~~for~~ ^{stealing} stealing two horses, one belonging to said Bookan, and one belonging to Dr. C. Heil-man, -

Testimony on part of the State, Edward Bookan of lawful age, being produced sworn & examined states as follows,

On Friday Night the 1st day of April 1839, I had a ^{Black} mare stolen from my stable in Hillsboro, in Jefferson County Missouri - on next morning, I found that Trietler's Store had been broken open & some goods stolen, and on examining further I found that my stable had been broken open and a Black mare belonging to me, had been stolen therefrom, - The stable door had been locked the night before with a pad lock which had been broken - I told John to go & get John Campbell, & go in search of the thief, - They went on the search up to St. Louis, & about a week afterwards, I went to St. Louis, and found they had the Prisoner & one Herringhouse under arrest, The Justice there sent them back to this County for trial, - The prisoner, the said John P. Hanning, told me, that when the Police came up to the stable where ^{Dr. Heilman's} ~~the horse~~ manure was, he ~~saw~~ a woman make a motion and he & another person immediately run,

They (Campbell & others) found my mare on ~~market street in~~ ^{at a stable in or near St. Louis,} ~~said to be~~ kept by ~~Frederick Beebe~~.

Saddler Shop, in possession of Henry Henninghouser, where he was fitting harness on her, - and Dr. Weierman's mare they found at a stable there ^{said} to be kept by Frederick Beebeash.

+ Question by Defendant.

Q Did I not tell you that I had never been at the stable until I was arrested I brought there, - Answer, Yes did.

He also, said he was going to a brick yard to get work, and as he was passing the stable he saw the woman motion her hand he run.

Milton Keech, of lawful age being produced sworn & examined on part of the State, testifies as follows.

I reside at Tenton Bridge, St. Louis Co. Mo.
~~about~~ ^{two weeks} ago, from last ~~Saturday~~ ^{Saturday} I was sitting at my Office at the Bridge & saw two persons pass, one on a Bay animal, and the other on a Brown.
The one on the Bay enquired the price of toll, I told him, he paid it, - he was next to me, - The horses appeared very sweaty; the Bay horse was well caparrisoned, - a pretty bright saddle & bridle etc, - The other the Brown, - had on a Blind Bridle, said in notice the saddle, I thought they looked suspicious. The persons on the Bay, had very heavy whiskers, rather a sharp face-appeal about 35 or 30 years of age, ^{had} black hair & whiskers, ^{I was} well dressed in black clothes. —

The man of the Brown horse was rather a shorter ~~leaner~~ built person - rather lighter colored hair not very heavy whiskers - also well dressed. The one on the Bay horse had a bag or baggage well filled swung across the saddle. - I am satisfied that I have seen Howard the prisoner some where, but I can't say he was either of the men described. - If he be the man I saw in ^{know} ^{Co} Ohio, his name is Hawkins, - he, the prisoner has strongly the resemblance of a boy I knew there by that name.
- He also resembles a boy I knew in Dayton, Montgomery Co, Ohio, by the name of Sheppard, who, I have since learned, has turned out to very bad habits.

Robert Stewart of lawful age, being sworn, & examined, deposes & says, - On Saturday the 2^d of April 1859, two men came riding past Mrs.
Cook's, on the road that passes Big Springs, while I was there. - One of them, riding a Bay horse rode up near the house, & asked this ^{way} to St. Louis

I told him it was, - he asked if it went by Benton, I said it did, - No appeared to be a tall man about 6 feet, with ^{3 sharp} face, with a ^{good handle} ~~black~~ ^{unusually heavy} whiskers - ~~black~~ The other was riding the Brown, he had a sack well filled swung across the saddle, - They appeared to be in a hurry, and their horses were wet with sweat, This was about 8 or 9 O'clock in the morning, It struck me at the time there was something in their manner that was not correct, I can't say positively, but really this man, the prisoner, appears to be the man that rode up & spoke to me, - He spoke lively & readily, in English.

On Saturday the 3rd day of April 1859, got her, she was found in St. Louis,

James McCallach Jr, ^{Justice of the Peace} of lawful age being produced sworn & examined on part of the State deposes & says, - On the 3rd day of April 1859, I saw two men riding past my house on the road leading from Morse's Mill on to Blues Creek in Jeff. Co., Mo., - One was on a Bay horse & the other on a black - They were about 130 yards from the house, so I could not tell what sort of looking men they were, - A few minutes after they part, about 5 minutes, - one of the same men came back walking & asked ^{me} the way to Benton Postage I told him & he immediately turned his back & left, - I think I said to the young man standing with me, "I'll see what that man did with the horse" I stepped ~~into the road~~ ^{on to a piece of dirt} ~~went a little piece~~ & probably stepped up on the fence and I saw him step out of the road behind a little haze thicket & in a minute or two he came out riding the same black mare, This was about half past five o'clock in the morning, - About half past nine o'clock the same day John R. Campbell & John Stubinger came to my house & said Noekan's black mare had been stolen, I told them I supposed the men that had passed there that morning had her, & after talking a little I agreed to go with them in search, - The one riding the black nag appeared to have something ~~written on the saddle~~ ^{written on the saddle} from the description we gave, we heard of the two men & horses all along as we went in pursuit, till we got to Sappington's about 12 miles from St. Louis, - We then went on to St. Louis, & stayed there till Monday, - and as we were walking along the street, I saw the black man, & told Campbell, & we walked up to where she was, & saw a man sitting ^{him} her on 'her - & I have ascertained that this was Edward Hooker's man. - Campbell asked the man who owned that man, - the man (whose name we afterwards learned was Hemminghouse) answered & said it is mine. Campbell asked him, would he sell 'her & he said he had just got her, - I asked him what did he give,

- he said "O; what I give, make no price when she work good then I make the price, - Campbell then said the man was stolen, - he said O; if she was stolen take him along, - I then put my hand on his shoulder, & told him, he must tell us the name of the man he got her from, he refused to do so, & I then told him he must show us the man, or place where he got her from,
- He stood round & jawed some time
- he was a antebellum, - He & I then went on to a stable & Campbell went after Dutch John, - As we came up to ^{the} stable, which was a sort of private stable, with only some three or four stalls in it, - he went foremost, - and we went into his house first, which was 7 or 8 steps from the stable, - There was a woman in the house, & some two or three children - He said some thing to the woman in aitch - I understood him to say 'some thing' about a Black mare. I then asked her when this Black mare came there she said Friday, I told her I thought she was mistaken about its being Friday - I asked her if there wasnt a Bay nag, ^{mare} - she said there was, I asked if her husband was there then ^{she} said not,

- she said he was out in Town, - This stable was entirely out of the city, in ^{the} suburbs, - We then went into the stable, I found there Dr.
Weilman's bay mare covered with a blanket & also the two saddles & bridles that had been stolen, - The men from Illinois that we met with at the Saddler's shop, came with us, at Campbell's request, - One of them, stayed with me at the stable & the other two went after the Police, - While we were in the stable we heard a noise outside - we stepped out & saw the Police & one of the Illinois men. & they said didnt you see them two men run from the Lot, I then looked & saw two men running, - they had got partly over the mound I could not see them fully, - but I thought one of them looked some thing like the man I had seen in the road near my house, - The Police & two Illinoisians went on after them, They caught Mr. Howard, the prisoner here, and brought him back to the stable while I was there, - The Policeman said they saw this woman in the back back to the two men, who ran ^{from} ~~and~~ of the lot, - They caught the prisoner running, after he had run about a mile & a half.
