The examination of Patrick Galvin taken before J. L. Glage a Justice of the Peace within and for the County of Jefferson on the 8th day of December 1859 of Norman Wright about two o'clock of that day as he was passing the residence of Norman Wright along the County road the said Norman Wright came out of his house and said something about poles and said I am going to shoot you and fired his gun at him and shot him in the right leg and right hand. Eleven shot entered his right leg and two ^{in the} right hands and the said Norman Wright after firing the shot said that the next one would be his head and made his escape as soon as he could and further saitheth not

Cross

States the only reason he knows of the said Norman Wright shooting him is that his land took a part of his clearing himself and Mr Wright never had any conversation about the land, never had any conversation with Mr Wright about poles never said anything to Mr Wright before he shot When he saw Wright he was coming out of his house and he turned back in the house and got his gun and came out fired at him, States that some time before the shooting he went to Mr Wright to settle the difficulty between his two Brothers and he ^{saw} Mr Wright about twenty yards from his house and he the said Wright went into his house took his gun out of the window and said if he did not leave he would shoot me and he left and went home and further saitheth not December 1859, the said Hiram Wright being charged before me with an assault with intent to kill, he the said Hiram Wright upon his examination now taken before me says that some the shooting of Patrick Galvin the Boys of Patrick Galvin David Galvin and John Galvin was cutting and hauling hoopoles off his land he went and made them quit and about three or four hours after Patrick David John Galvin came back with pistols and a double barrel shot gun and dared him out of his house and told to go away or he would kill them and after a great deal of abuses they went off, and on the 24th day of November 1859, Patrick Galvin was passing through the lane by his house he asked if he stole his poles he answered him his up and i told him to go away or i would shoot him and i went in the house and got my gun and shot him in the right leg and hands
