In the Jefferson Circuit Court December Term 1860

Thomas J. Hall, Plff.

vs.

Harmon Peters, Deft.

Civil Action

Now at this day comes the plaintiff and for complaint against the Defendant says that some time in the year 1858 Defendant himself entered into a contract which contract was to the effect that the plaintiff should Board the Defendant & take care of him he being sick and unable to wait on himself so long as they might agree to live together or the plaintiff see proper to live at the place of Defendant where he commenced residing about the 9th day of December 1858 at which time the Defendant in compliance with the contract aforesaid commenced boarding with plaintiff and continued so to board with him till about the first of November 1859 being ten months & a half - plaintiff says further that during the whole of the time aforesaid the Defendant was sick and almost & sometimes wholly unable to wait on himself - plaintiff further says that the Defendant has not in anywise remunerated him for the trouble & expense aforesaid that there were reciprocal dealings between them the particulars and credits all of which will fully appear by an account herewith filed & made a part of this petition - plaintiff further says that It may also be understood that Defendant knows the contents & value of the boarding & attendance so received from plaintiff

The Boarding, Nursing, & Waiting &c so received by the Defendant from plaintiff this family was Reasonably worth Fifteen Dollars per month for the whole of the time aforesaid, To wit, Ten months & a half and that after giving to the said Defendant all Credits to which he is entitled & which appear from the accounts hereto annexed the Defendant justly ows him the Sum of One Hundred Dollars for which he asks judgement — vs } Civil Action

Harmon Peters Deft }

Now at this day comes the Plaintiff and for complaint against the Defendant. Says that some time in the year 1858. Defendant & himself entered into a contract, which contract was to the effect, that the Plaintiff should board the Defendant, or take care of him, he being sick and unable to wait on himself so long as they might agree to live together or the Plaintiff see proper to live at the place of Defendant, where he commenced residing about the 9th day of December 1858. It was also understood between Plaintiff & Defendant, that Defendant should pay the reasonable value of the boarding & attention so received from Plaintiff at which time the Defendant in compliance with the contract afore said, commenced boarding with Plaintiff, and continued so to board with him till about the first of November 1859. being ten months & a half. Plaintiff says further, that during the whole of the time aforesaid the defendant was sick and almost & sometimes wholly unable to wait on himself. Plaintiff further says that the Defendant has not in anywise remunerated him for the trouble & expense aforesaid. that there that there were reciprocal dealing between them. the particulars and credits all of which will fully appear, by an account herewith filed & made a part of this petition

Plaintiff further says that the Boarding nursing & doctoring on, so received by the Defendant from Plaintiff his family, was reasonably worth fifteen dollars per month for the whole of the time aforesaid to wit Ten months & a half, and that after giving to the said Defendant, all credits to which he is entitled & which appear from the account hereto annexed, the defendant justly ows him the sum of one hundred dollars for which he asks Judgment
