Plot

Broke into home of George Martsden;
defendant also "Beckerley"

State of Missouri }
County of Jefferson }

This day came personally before the undersigned, Justice of the Peace of said County George Marsdon, who being by me duly sworn on his oath states that on the 13th day of October 1860, his dwelling house in said County was broken open in the night time, and all of the personal property therein broken into pieces & thrown out of the house; and that previous to that time and since ^{to wit on the 1st of November 1860} then Jesse S. Johnston William Beckler, and Vilanova D. Evans at the County aforesaid, did threaten to ^{beligiously} beat and kill him the said George Marsdon, and did threaten to destroy his property and to burn up his house, And this affiant has good reason to fear and does fear that the said Jesse S. Johnston William Beckler, and Vilanova D. Evans will commit said offences against the person or property of this Affiant.

Prosecution to Keep the Peace
On the Affidavit of George Marsden a warrant was issued against the defendants on the 6th day of November 1860. Charging them with having threatened

The life of said Marsden & to burn his property.
The defendants being arrested and brought before the Justice on the 8th day of Nov. moved a change of venue which was overruled and the cause continued till the 9th Nov at the request of the Defendants on this day the parties being present & ready for trial the justice on a hearing of the proofs and allegations of the parties is of the opinion that that the prosecutor has reason to fear that the Defendants may commit the offense with which they are charged

The Justice therefore adjudges that the defendants Be required to enter into a recognizance, each in the sum of Fifty Dollars, for their appearance at Court & to keep the peace in the mean time.

Which recognizance being entered into Defendants are discharged.

I, Jos. P. Hesser a Justice of the peace within and for Jefferson County, Missouri do certify that the foregoing is a true transcript of the proceedings in the case of the State vs. Jesse B. Johnson & William Beckerleg as the same appears on my Docket and that the Recognizance herewith returned is the original taken
