Louis. Young vs.
Mathias. Lepp.

Plaintiff filed October 13th 1860, for Suit, an account for Eleven dollars and Fifty cents, dated September 24th 1860. and directed a Summons to issue, which is done, and delivered to Henry Black constable, returnable November 10th 1860. A jury having been demanded, a precept issued therefore, and, being returned, the following named persons, were sworn as jurors, to wit, H. S. Reppy Morris — Hoard games, Robertson C. P. Eperly and George Brackensiz, who, after hearing the evidence, returned into court the following verdict: We, the jury, find for the plaintiff the sum of five dollars. George Brackensiz^{Foreman}. It is, therefore, adjudged that the plaintiff recover of the defendant the sum of five dollars and all costs, and that he have execution therefor. Thereupon, defendant tendered his affidavit, and appeal bond for fifty dollars of himself, and James V. McMullin as security, and prayed an appeal to the Circuit Court from our said judgment, which being deemed sufficient, it is ordered that an appeal, as prayed, be allowed defendant.
